

Terrenus - White -

Winemaking:

Terrenus Reserva Vinhas Velhas is a white wine produced with a set of white grape varieties from old vines planted in the Alentejo wine region. After the pressing process, the musts have rested for 48 hours to clear. The musts have been fermented in stainless steel tanks, at a controlled temperature. After the fermentation process, the wine was transferred to new French oak barrels where it has stayed in contact with fine lees, where it has been subjected to regular stirring, for 8 months, prior to being bottled.

Tasting Notes:

Terrenus Reserva is an elegant, aromatic, and very balanced white wine produced from white grapes from old vines planted in the wine region of Alentejo. It is a wine that is full of aromas of white pulp fruits, citrus nuances, along with aromas of extraordinary wood and dried fruits. It has smooth greasiness, freshness, and citric acidity.
